Come wearing something that carries meaning for you:

- An issue you care about
- A feeling you hold
- A story you want to honour
- A memory from the past
- Or a creative solution for the future

It might be a piece of clothing, a word, a symbol, a colour, a texture, or something you've made.

It doesn't need to be perfect. It just needs to be yours.

You can walk alone, with others, or simply witness.

There is no right way to take part

Together, we will walk slowly, listen, and reflect —

Wearing what matters, and imagining how we might walk more gently into the future.

Wear the Story. Walk the Change.
